al Trade Commission for an all Trade Commission for an and officers of the company has sold to two builders seven and a half lots on the 181st street end of the block, between Daly and Vyse avenues. The property was sold in two plots, one word from the commission that it will take up the matter at an early date. Charges of a far reaching nature are made in the complaint. One of them is that at the time Benjamin Guggenhelm was president of the International and of the Power and Mining Machinery Company the entire capital stock of the latter was bought by the International for $6,500,000 in its common stock and $2,500,000 of its preferred. A recent appraisal put the value of the matter at an early date. The property was sold in two plots, one going to Abraham Kuttler, Jr., and the other to Aaron Klein. The buyers plan to erect four five story houses on the property, which will be ready for occupancy early next year. This is the first age made by the American Real Estate Company on this block, which has front-from the property was sold in two plots, one dwelling at 48 West fifty-sixth street, for the estate of Gustavus Sidenberg, to Madame Katherine Elise, a dressmaker.
